Today's liturgy

Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! O King of Israel: Hosanna in the highest!

P. The Lord be with you

R. And with your spirit.

P. Let us pray.....

R. Amen.

P. So the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered the council, and said, “What are we to do? For this man performs many signs. If we let him go on thus, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and destroy both our holy place and our nation.

Choir: But one of them, Caiaphas who was high priest that year, said to them, “You know nothing at all; you do not understand that it is expedient for you that one man should die for the people and that the whole nation should not perish”. So from that day on they took counsel how to put Him to death, for as they said: “The Romans will come and destroy both our holy place and our nation”.

P. Let us pray.....

R. Amen.

P. Let us pray.....

R. Amen.

P. With hyssop sprinkle me, o Lord, and I shall be cleansed. Wash me and I shall be whiter than the snow. May my prayer before You be counted as incense and the lifting up of my hands as an evening sacrifice.

Choir: Children of the Hebrews, bearing branches of olive went out to meet the Lord, crying: Hosanna in the highest! Children of the Hebrews spread their garments on the road and cried out saying: Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.

P. And when they drew near to Jerusalem, then Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them: “Go into the village opposite you, where you will find an ass tied and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to Me. If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, “The Lord has need of them!” The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them; they brought the ass and the colt and put their garments on them and He sat thereon. Most of the crowd spread their garments on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road and the crowds who went before Him and that followed shouted,

Choir: Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! O King of Israel: Hosanna in the highest!

P. Let us go forth in peace.

R. In the name of Christ, Amen.

1. Blessed is he who trusts in God Almighty, And he who hopes in God's most gracious mercy. He shall acknowledge: God is my protector. In life's dark journey, I shall fear no danger. I shall fear no danger.

2. From all the pow's of evil God shall save him. Of nature's forces, he shall ne'er fall victim. Under the pinions of the Lord Almighty, In God's protection, he shall dwell in safety. He shall dwell in safety.

P. All glory, laud and honor, to You, Redeemer, King! To whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring.
(Choir repeats)

P. You are the King of Israel, and David's royal Son, now in the Lord's name coming, our King and Blessed One. All glory...

The company of angels are praising you on high, creation and all mortals in chorus make reply. All glory...

The people of the Hebrews with palms before You went. Our praise and prayers and anthems before You we present. All glory...

To You, before Your Passion, they sang their hymns of praise. To You, now high exalted, our melody we raise.
All glory...

Their praises You accepted; accept the prayers we bring, great Author of all goodness, o good and gracious King! All glory...

The celebrant knocks on the door of the vestibule three times with the shaft of the cross. It is at once opened and the celebrant and acolytes enter the body of the church. When the celebrant reaches the center of the aisle, the procession kneels.

P. Let us adore the Savior, who rode in royal triumphant into Jerusalem.

Choir: Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! O King of Israel: Hosanna in the highest!

II Reading: Philippians 2:6-11

Jesus lays aside His divine glory and humbles himself even to the extent of dying a hideous death by crucifixion.

THE TRACT

(Philippians 2:8-9)

V. Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross,

R. Because of this, God greatly exalted Him and bestowed on Him the name, which is above every name.

Even in this, the bleakest of the four Passion accounts, Jesus is recognized in the end as "Son of God".

OFFERTORY HYMN – Holy Cross – PNCC Hymnal, p. 92

1. Holy Cross, O Tree all beauteous, Tree all peerless and divine! No grove on the earth can show us Such a flow'r and leaf as thine! Precious nails and precious the wood On which hung our dying Lord.
2. Lofty tree bend down thy branches, To embrace thy sacred burden; Relax, oh, relax the tension Of that all too rigid wood. Gently, gently bear the members Of thy dying King and God.

Jesus, My Lord And Savior – PNCC Hymnal, p. 159

1. Jesus, my Lord and Savior, here would I worship Thee. All that I have I give Thee for Thou didst die for me. Here in this Bread of heaven, here in this Host Divine. Thanksgiving, praise and honor be ev'ry moment Thine. All my vain pride I humble, all my poor soul I give unto my Lord and Savior that with Him I may live.
2. Hosanna in the highest! Angelic choirs do sing, Glorious praise unceasing to Christ our Lord and King. Setting for us a standard as we our songs employ, Bringing us closer to Him, filling us with His joy. He knows the tears of suff'ring through His own earthly life. With trembling heart we praise Him, telling Him of our strife.

COMMUNION VERSE

(Matthew 26:42)

V. Father, if this cup cannot pass away unless I drink it, Your will be done.

RECESSIONAL HYMN – When I Survey the Wond'rous Cross – PNCC Hymnal, p. 113

1. When I survey the wond'rous cross on which the Prince of glory died, my richest gain I count but loss, and pour contempt on all my pride.
2. Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, save in the death of Christ, my God: all the vain things that charm me most, I sacrifice them to His blood.

May the Father, who so loved the world as to give His only Son, fill you with love. May the Son who died for you on Calvary fill you with gratitude. May the Holy Spirit, joint gift of Father and Son, fill you with joy.

THE PNCC SPECIAL SYNOD – pursuant to article VII, LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY, B, THE SPECIAL SYNOD, SECTION 1 of the Constitution and Laws of the PNCC, the Prime Bishop Anthony A. Mikovsky calls a Special Synod for the PNCC to convene at St. Stanislaus Cathedral Youth Center, Scranton, PA, on Friday, June 22, 2012 with the concurrence of the Supreme Council. The sole purpose of this one-day Synod will be to elect 2 Candidates for Bishop. It will be necessary for each parish to elect lay delegates to this Special Synod. The number of lay delegates to which a parish is entitled is determined by the General Fund Dues submitted for 2011. Mandates and Registration forms may be obtained from the offices of our Diocesan Bishop. The Synod will begin with Holy Mass at St. Stanislaus Cathedral on Friday, June 22, at 8:00AM. After Mass a light continental breakfast will be served in the Youth Center, followed by the election process. Two meal breaks for lunch and dinner, also served in the Youth Center, will be scheduled.

Keep in mind that it is a sacred right that we have to assemble at a Synod to do important work of the Church. Let us remember that the Church has been called into existence by Christ to continue His work. This is a Holy Assembly, and every parish has a moral obligation to send delegates to participate.

EASTER BASKET TRADITION. Indeed, one of the most symbolic and beautiful Easter customs of our ancestors is the tradition of preparing and blessing of Easter Basket.

We know that early Christians as well as our pious ancestors greeted each other on Easter morning with, “Christ has risen” and reply, “Truly He is risen, He rose and gave us life everlasting!”

Each Easter Basket should contain the following foods:

Bread – a round or cylindrical bread, made of flour, eggs, yeast and milk topped with a cross or a fish, symbolic of Jesus, Who is the Living Bread, the Bread of Life.

The Lamb, often made of butter or in the form of cake, is the ancient Passover food and represents the Lamb of God.

Eggs are a sign of hope and resurrection. Jesus came forth from the tomb as the chick breaks the shell at birth.

Vinegar is a symbol of the gall offered to Jesus in His thirst.

Horseradish represents the bitter herbs prescribed in the original Passover meal as a reminder of the bitterness of Christ's suffering and Passion.

Meat: ham, sausage, or bacon. The meat products symbolize the sacrificial animals of the Old Testament, foreshadowing the true sacrifice of our Savior. Ham symbolizes the freedom of the New Law which came into effect through Jesus' resurrection, in distinction to the Law which forbade certain meats. Sausage is our ethnic tradition and its links remind us of the chains of death that were broken when Jesus arose.

Salt symbolizes the Truth of the message of Jesus.

Blessed Candle, often the same candle used at a baptism or Communion. It symbolizes the “Light of the World, our Lord, Jesus Christ”.

WELCOME OUR VISITORS – We welcome all our visitors who are present with us for worship this Sunday! Please write your names in the guest book located in the vestibule of the church. You are always welcome to join us in worship!

RECEIVING THE HOLY EUCHARIST – those who believe in the true presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist are invited to partake of this Holy Sacrament. It is the practice of the PNCC to distribute the Holy Eucharist through the method of intinction. The Body and Blood of Christ are placed on the tongue, not in the hand.
