FEBRUARY – Simeon and Anna in the Temple: PIETY, COMPASSION. Luke 2:22-28

Reflecting question: Simeon and Anna recognized Jesus as the promised Messiah and told others in the Temple about Him. Can you come up with 2 practical ways by which you can do the same?

Schedule: Soup, Sandwich & Sermon or Wine and Cheese Gathering – Adult Education.

“Simeon and Anna Encounter Jesus

In keeping with the law of Moses, just forty days after Jesus’ birth, Joseph and Mary made the five-to-six-mile journey to Jerusalem for Mary’s purification and to present their firstborn to God. This would not have been an unlikely scene in Israelite culture, but the person the young family met upon arrival at their destination makes this trip to the temple stand out.

Simeon's Encounter

We know that Simeon was elderly, and the Spirit—the same one that revealed to him that he would see the Messiah before his death—was upon him and led him to the temple grounds that very day, into Jesus’ presence. As Jesus’ parents brought their newborn to present him to God, Simeon took the infant Jesus in his arms and praised God, saying, “Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to your people Israel”.

Simeon had waited for many years, patiently, to meet the Messiah, and he remained righteous as he grew older. What the Spirit revealed, the Spirit led him to see in the flesh. Mary and Joseph marveled at Simeon’s words and he blessed them.

Anna's Encounter

According to St. Luke, she was an 84-year old widow, and unlike Simeon, she was not prepared to die. Rather she was a driven woman, ready to bear witness to what she had seen. St. Luke doesn’t tell us much more about her aside from the names of her tribe and father, but we know Anna was the first woman to understand fully and proclaim the good news, and the only woman explicitly described as “prophetess” in the New Testament. She “did not depart from the temple, worshiping with fasting and prayer night and day”. Such devotion to spend her waking hours in spiritual discipline!

Having encountered Jesus, Anna was full of praise, was ready to speak, and was driven to make Jesus known in her community.

Our Response

The response of godly people toward encountering the Messiah in the New Testament was praise. We see this response in Simeon and in Anna, and we in turn must ask if we see this response in ourselves. In this season, let your response to Him be praise, whenever you encounter Him. How do Simeon’s and Anna’s encounters with Jesus inspire you?”

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wiles and wickedness of the devil. Restrain him, o God, we humbly pray, and you, o Prince of the heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into Hell Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin and destruction of souls. Amen.
