The solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, more commonly known as Corpus Christi, is a wonderful way of gathering together the themes of Easter. The Eucharist has been described as summing up everything we do and profess as Christians.

I Reading: Exodus 24:3-8

II Reading: Hebrews 9:11-15

GOSPEL: Mark 14:12-16. 22-26

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, His disciples said to Jesus, 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?' So, He sent two of His disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, "The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the Passover with My disciples?" He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.' The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as He had told them and prepared the Passover. And as they were eating, He took some bread, and when He had said the blessing, He broke it and gave it to them. 'Take it,' He said, 'this is My body.' Then He took a cup, and when He had returned thanks He gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, 'This is My blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God.' After psalms had been sung, they left for the Mount of Olives.
