HAPPY BIRTHDAY – June 21 –
Josephine Hause; June 22 – Michael

We hear in the Gospel reading today how Jesus fed the crowds: He took bread, blessed it, broke it and gave it to them. These are the same actions that are at the heart of every Mass. So Jesus feeds us today with His Body and Blood.

I Reading: Genesis 14:18-20

II Reading: I Corinthians 11:23-26

GOSPEL: Luke 9:11-17

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and He cured those who were in need of healing. It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to Him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But He said to His disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, raised His eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then He broke them and handed them to His disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

Solemnity – Sacred Heart of Jesus

Jesus knew and loved us each and all during His life, His agony and His Passion, and gave himself up for each one of us. He has loved us all with a human heart. For this reason, the Sacred Heart of Jesus, pierced by our sins and for our salvation, is quite rightly considered the chief sign and symbol of that love with which the divine Redeemer continually loves the eternal Father and all human beings without exception.

Solemnity – Nativity of St. John the Baptist

Born six months before our Lord, St. John the Baptist was the son of Zechariah and Elizabeth, our Lord's cousin. He was the last and greatest of the prophets. As the forerunner of the Savior, he had the mission of preparing the Jews for the coming of Christ. When Jesus had come, St. John bore witness to him before his own followers and encouraged them to follow him.
