The disciples are still experiencing the after-effects of the Resurrection of the Lord; they are still learning the significance of His death, His rising to new life, and His appearances to them. What happened to them is still happening to us: Pentecost was a one-off event... and is still happening in us and amongst us.

I Reading: Acts 2:I-II

II Reading: Romans 8:8-17

GOSPEL: John 14:15-16, 23-26

Jesus said to His disciples: 'If you love Me you will keep My commandments. I shall ask the Father, and He will give you another Advocate to be with you for ever. 'If anyone loves Me he will keep My word, and My Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him. Those who do not love Me do not keep My words. And My word is not My own: it is the word of the one who sent Me. I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you.
