HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Birthday best wishes are extended to: July 21 – Jean Keim.

As we gather together today, we remind ourselves of what it means to serve each other as neighbors. We are called to bring the message of God's love to the world, not just through our words, but also through our actions. We bring an attitude of welcome and hospitality to all, especially those who are otherwise excluded.

I Reading: Genesis 18:1-10

II Reading: Colossians 1:24-28

GOSPEL: Luke 10:38-42

Jesus came to a village, and a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her house. She had a sister called Mary, who sat down at the Lord's feet and listened to Him speaking. Now Martha who was distracted with all the serving said, 'Lord, do you not care that my sister is leaving me to do the serving all by myself? Please tell her to help me.' But the Lord answered: 'Martha, Martha,' He said 'you worry and fret about so many things, and yet few are needed, indeed only one. It is Mary who has chosen the better part; it is not to be taken from her.'
